Ambassador Privacy Policy & Comprehensive Liability Disclaimer

Governing the collection, use, and protection of personal data, and the full extent of PeerVia's liability limitations with respect to all Ambassadors and platform participants

Document Reference: PV-AMB-PP-2025-001
Effective Date: 1 September 2026
Jurisdiction: Kingdom of the Netherlands
Governing Law: Dutch Civil Law (Burgerlijk Wetboek)
Data Framework: General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) — EU 2016/679; UK GDPR
Applies To: All individuals holding or applying for the role of PeerVia Ambassador
Version: 1.0 (reviewed annually or upon material change in law or platform operation)

IMPORTANT LEGAL NOTICE — READ CAREFULLY BEFORE PROCEEDING

This document constitutes a legally binding agreement between PeerVia and each Ambassador. By accepting the Ambassador role, registering on the PeerVia platform, or participating in any PeerVia activity in any capacity whatsoever, you unconditionally accept all terms contained herein. If you do not accept these terms in their entirety, you must not proceed with your application or participation.

Section 1 — Definitions and Interpretation

In this Privacy Policy and Liability Disclaimer, the following terms shall have the meanings ascribed to them below. Where the context requires, the singular includes the plural and vice versa, and references to any gender include all genders.

Term	Definition
"PeerVia"	The platform, brand, and operating entity known as PeerVia, including its founders, directors, employees, contractors, and any authorised representatives acting on its behalf.
"Ambassador"	Any university student, graduate, or individual who has applied for, been accepted into, or is actively participating in the PeerVia Ambassador Programme in the Netherlands or the United Kingdom.
"Platform"	The PeerVia website, application, dashboard, Q&A system, booking system, communication tools, and any other digital or non-digital infrastructure operated by or on behalf of PeerVia.
"Personal Data"	Any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person as defined under GDPR Article 4(1) and UK GDPR, including but not limited to names, email addresses, photographs, academic information, and device identifiers.
"Processing"	Any operation performed on Personal Data including collection, storage, use, disclosure, transmission, deletion, or any other operation as defined under GDPR Article 4(2).
"High Schooler" / "Student"	Any individual who accesses the PeerVia platform in the capacity of a mentee, questioner, or caller, regardless of their actual academic status.
"Session"	Any booked video or audio call between an Ambassador and a Student conducted through or arranged via the PeerVia platform.
"Content"	Any text, answer, image, recording, document, or other material submitted, posted, or shared by an Ambassador on or through the PeerVia platform.
"Third Party"	Any individual, entity, or organisation that is not PeerVia or the Ambassador in question.
"GDPR"	Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and the free movement of such data.
"UK GDPR"	The GDPR as retained in UK law by the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018, as amended by the Data Protection, Privacy and Electronic Communications (Amendments etc) (EU Exit) Regulations 2019.
"Damages"	Any direct, indirect, incidental, special, consequential, punitive, or exemplary loss, damage, cost, expense, or liability of any nature whatsoever.

Section 2 — Privacy Policy: Data We Collect

PeerVia is committed to processing Ambassador Personal Data lawfully, fairly, and transparently in accordance with applicable data protection legislation. This section sets out in detail what data we collect, why we collect it, and the legal basis upon which we do so.

2.1 Categories of Personal Data Collected

PeerVia collects and processes the following categories of Personal Data from Ambassadors:

(a) Identity and Contact Data

- Full legal name and preferred display name
- University or institutional email address and personal email address
- Nationality and country of residence
- Profile photograph submitted by the Ambassador
- LinkedIn profile URL and any other professional profile links voluntarily provided

(b) Academic and Professional Data

- Name of university or higher education institution
- Current year of study and programme of enrolment
- Academic field and career specialisation
- Degree classification or GPA where voluntarily disclosed
- Any professional qualifications, certifications, or memberships stated on the Ambassador's profile

(c) Platform Activity Data

- All written answers, Q&A responses, and public content posted on the platform
- Session records including date, time, duration, and subject matter of calls
- Ratings and reviews received from Students following sessions
- Login times, session durations, and frequency of platform use
- Communications sent through PeerVia's internal messaging system
- Questions accepted, declined, or left unanswered, and associated timestamps

(d) Technical and Device Data

- IP address and approximate geolocation data
- Browser type, version, and operating system
- Device identifiers and screen resolution
- Referral source and pages visited within the platform

(e) Verification and Compliance Data

- Identity verification data where requested for safeguarding purposes
- Records of training completion and onboarding acknowledgements
- Any correspondence with PeerVia relating to conduct, warnings, or complaints

2.2 Purposes and Legal Bases for Processing

PeerVia processes Ambassador Personal Data only where a valid legal basis exists under GDPR Article 6. The primary legal bases relied upon are: (a) the performance of a contract to which the Ambassador is a party (Article 6(1)(b)); (b) compliance with a legal obligation (Article 6(1)(c)); (c) legitimate interests pursued by PeerVia (Article 6(1)(f)); and (d) the explicit consent of the Ambassador where indicated (Article 6(1)(a)).

- Profile creation and publication: Processing your identity, academic, and professional data to create and display your public Ambassador profile is necessary for the performance of your Ambassador agreement with PeerVia.
- Session management: Recording and managing booked sessions, including confirmation, reminders, and follow-up, is necessary for the performance of your contract and for the legitimate interest of ensuring platform integrity.
- Safety and safeguarding: Processing identity and communication data to protect the safety of Students and Ambassadors is a legal obligation and legitimate interest of the highest priority.
- Platform improvement: Analysing activity and technical data to improve the platform is a legitimate interest of PeerVia, provided such processing does not override your fundamental rights.
- Legal compliance: Retaining certain records to comply with applicable laws, including Dutch and UK data protection, tax, and safeguarding legislation, constitutes a legal obligation.
- Marketing and promotion (with consent): Where you have explicitly consented, we may use your profile, testimonial, or likeness in promotional materials. Consent may be withdrawn at any time without affecting the lawfulness of prior processing.

2.3 Data Retention

PeerVia will retain Ambassador Personal Data only for as long as is necessary for the purposes for which it was collected, subject to any longer retention periods required by law. Specifically:

- Active profile data is retained for the duration of your Ambassador engagement plus 12 months following deactivation, to allow for reactivation or appeals.
- Session records and Q&A content are retained for a minimum of 3 years following their creation to support platform integrity, dispute resolution, and safeguarding obligations.
- Identity verification documents are retained for 5 years following submission in compliance with safeguarding best practice and applicable Dutch and UK regulatory guidance.
- Technical and device data is retained for 12 months in aggregate and anonymised form for analytical purposes.
- Correspondence relating to conduct, warnings, or complaints is retained indefinitely where relevant to unresolved matters or potential legal proceedings.

2.4 Data Sharing and Third Parties

PeerVia does not sell, rent, or trade Ambassador Personal Data to any third party for commercial purposes under any circumstances. PeerVia may share Ambassador Personal Data with the following categories of third parties solely to the extent necessary for legitimate operational purposes:

- Cloud hosting and infrastructure providers, subject to appropriate data processing agreements;
- Payment processing providers, where applicable, subject to PCI-DSS compliance;
- Email and communication service providers for the purpose of delivering platform notifications;
- Safeguarding authorities, law enforcement agencies, or regulatory bodies where disclosure is required or permitted by law;
- Legal advisers, auditors, or professional consultants acting under duties of confidentiality.

Where Personal Data is transferred outside the European Economic Area or the United Kingdom, PeerVia will ensure that appropriate safeguards are in place in accordance with GDPR Chapter V and UK GDPR equivalent provisions, including Standard Contractual Clauses where applicable.

2.5 Ambassador Rights Under GDPR

Subject to applicable law, each Ambassador holds the following rights with respect to their Personal Data processed by PeerVia. Requests must be submitted in writing to privacy@peervia.io and will be responded to within one calendar month.

- Right of Access (Article 15): You have the right to request a copy of all Personal Data held about you by PeerVia.
- Right to Rectification (Article 16): You have the right to request correction of inaccurate or incomplete Personal Data.
- Right to Erasure (Article 17): You have the right to request deletion of your Personal Data where it is no longer necessary for the purposes for which it was collected, subject to overriding legal obligations.
- Right to Restriction (Article 18): You have the right to request that processing of your Personal Data be temporarily restricted in certain circumstances.
- Right to Data Portability (Article 20): You have the right to receive your Personal Data in a structured, commonly used, machine-readable format.
- Right to Object (Article 21): You have the right to object to processing based on legitimate interests, including for marketing purposes.
- Right to Withdraw Consent: Where processing is based on your consent, you may withdraw it at any time without affecting prior lawful processing.
- Right to Lodge a Complaint: You have the right to lodge a complaint with the Autoriteit Persoonsgegevens (Netherlands) or the Information Commissioner's Office (United Kingdom) at any time.

Section 3 — Comprehensive Liability Disclaimer

NOTICE OF FULL LIABILITY EXCLUSION

The provisions set out in this Section 3 constitute PeerVia's comprehensive exclusion and limitation of liability. These provisions are fundamental to the basis upon which PeerVia operates the Ambassador Programme and the platform. By participating as an Ambassador, you expressly acknowledge, accept, and agree that PeerVia bears no responsibility, liability, or obligation of any nature whatsoever in respect of the matters described herein. PeerVia is not responsible for anything that happens to any Ambassador.

3.1 General Exclusion of Liability

To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, PeerVia, its founders, directors, employees, contractors, affiliates, agents, and any person acting on its behalf (collectively, "PeerVia Parties") hereby expressly exclude all liability of any kind, whether arising in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty, misrepresentation, restitution, or otherwise, for any and all Damages of any nature whatsoever arising out of or in connection with:

- The Ambassador's participation in the PeerVia Ambassador Programme in any capacity;
- Any action taken or omitted by the Ambassador in the course of their duties as an Ambassador;
- Any interaction, communication, session, or relationship between the Ambassador and any Student, third party, or other Ambassador, whether on or off the platform;
- Any content produced, published, shared, or communicated by the Ambassador through or in connection with the platform;
- Any decision made by a Student or third party in reliance upon advice, information, or guidance provided by the Ambassador;
- The accuracy, completeness, adequacy, suitability, or fitness for any purpose of any information provided by the Ambassador;
- Any technical failure, interruption, error, delay, data loss, or unauthorised access affecting the platform or the Ambassador's use of it;
- Any dispute, disagreement, complaint, or legal claim arising between the Ambassador and any Student, third party, or institution;
- Any personal injury, psychological harm, financial loss, reputational damage, or other loss sustained by the Ambassador in connection with their participation in the Programme.

3.2 Ambassador Assumes Full Personal Responsibility

The Ambassador unconditionally and irrevocably acknowledges and agrees that:

- Their participation in the PeerVia Ambassador Programme is entirely voluntary and undertaken at their own risk in all respects.
- They are solely and exclusively responsible for all advice, guidance, information, opinions, and content they provide to Students, whether written, verbal, or otherwise, and for any consequences thereof.
- They are solely responsible for ensuring that any information they share is accurate, lawful, and appropriate at the time of sharing.
- They are solely responsible for their own conduct, behaviour, and decisions at all times, including during sessions, on the platform, and in any activity carried out in connection with their Ambassador role.

- They are solely responsible for their own physical, mental, emotional, and financial wellbeing throughout their participation in the Programme.
- They are solely responsible for obtaining any professional advice (legal, financial, medical, or otherwise) that they may require in connection with their Ambassador activities, and PeerVia is not the source of such advice.
- They are solely responsible for complying with all applicable laws, regulations, and professional standards in their jurisdiction, including but not limited to data protection, consumer protection, and academic integrity requirements.
- They are solely responsible for any tax obligations arising from their participation in the Programme, including any income from sessions or activities conducted through the platform.
- They are solely responsible for any reputational, professional, or academic consequences that may arise from their public association with PeerVia.

3.3 No Liability for Platform Operations

PeerVia does not warrant, represent, or guarantee any of the following, and expressly excludes all liability in respect thereof:

- Platform availability: PeerVia does not guarantee that the platform will be available at any particular time, free from interruptions, errors, or defects, or that any particular feature or functionality will be operational at any given time.
- Data security: While PeerVia implements reasonable technical and organisational security measures, PeerVia does not guarantee that the platform is free from cyber threats, unauthorised access, data breaches, or data loss, and shall not be liable for any Damages resulting therefrom, save where such liability cannot be excluded by law.
- Third party services: The platform may integrate with or link to third party services, tools, or platforms. PeerVia is not responsible for the availability, accuracy, security, or content of any third party service, and the Ambassador's use of such services is entirely at their own risk.
- Student conduct: PeerVia is not responsible for the conduct, behaviour, decisions, or actions of any Student, including any Student who misuses or misrepresents information received from an Ambassador.
- Technical errors: PeerVia accepts no liability for any loss or damage caused by technical errors, system failures, session disconnections, or any defect in the platform's recording, booking, or communication infrastructure.

3.4 No Liability for Outcomes or Decisions

PeerVia is a peer mentorship platform, not an educational institution, careers advisory service, legal firm, medical practice, or professional consultancy. Accordingly, PeerVia expressly states and the Ambassador expressly acknowledges that:

- PeerVia does not endorse, verify, or take responsibility for any advice, guidance, or information provided by Ambassadors to Students.
- PeerVia does not guarantee any outcome for any Student who uses the platform, including but not limited to university admission, career placement, academic performance, or personal development.
- No Student or Ambassador may bring any claim against PeerVia arising from the outcome of any session, Q&A response, or platform interaction.
- PeerVia is not liable for any Student's decision to pursue or not pursue a particular career, university, or course of action based on information obtained through the platform.
- PeerVia is not responsible for any financial decision made by any Student or Ambassador in reliance upon information obtained through the platform.

3.5 No Liability for Events Outside the Platform

PeerVia's responsibility is strictly limited to the operation of its own platform infrastructure. PeerVia expressly accepts no liability whatsoever for any event, interaction, consequence, or circumstance that occurs:

- Outside of the PeerVia platform, including but not limited to communications conducted via WhatsApp, email, Instagram, Snapchat, telephone, or any other unofficial channel;
- Before or after any session, whether in connection with that session or otherwise;
- In person, regardless of whether the meeting was arranged through the platform;
- At any university, educational institution, social event, or public venue;
- In connection with any agreement, arrangement, or relationship entered into between an Ambassador and a Student independently of PeerVia;
- As a result of the Ambassador's activities on any third party platform, social media network, or public forum.

For the avoidance of doubt, any Ambassador who engages with a Student outside of the PeerVia platform does so entirely at their own risk and on their own account, and PeerVia accepts no responsibility, legal or otherwise, for any consequences of such interaction.

3.6 No Employment, Agency, or Partnership Relationship

The Ambassador's participation in the PeerVia Programme does not create, and shall not be construed as creating, any relationship of employment, worker status, agency, partnership, joint venture, franchise, or any other legal relationship between the Ambassador and PeerVia. Specifically:

- The Ambassador is an independent volunteer participant and is not an employee, worker, agent, or contractor of PeerVia for any purpose.
- PeerVia is not responsible for the acts or omissions of the Ambassador in any capacity and the Ambassador has no authority to bind PeerVia to any obligation, representation, or agreement.
- The Ambassador shall not represent themselves as an employee, agent, or legal representative of PeerVia.
- PeerVia shall not be liable for any Damages arising from the Ambassador acting in excess of their role or purporting to represent PeerVia in an unauthorised capacity.
- The Ambassador is not entitled to any remuneration, benefits, pension, holiday pay, sick pay, or any other employment right or entitlement from PeerVia unless separately and explicitly agreed in writing.

3.7 Indemnification

The Ambassador hereby agrees to fully indemnify, defend, and hold harmless PeerVia and each of the PeerVia Parties from and against any and all claims, actions, proceedings, losses, liabilities, Damages, costs, and expenses (including reasonable legal fees) arising out of or in connection with:

- Any breach by the Ambassador of this Privacy Policy, the Ambassador Code of Conduct, or any other applicable PeerVia policy;
- Any negligent, reckless, or wilful act or omission by the Ambassador in the course of their Ambassador activities;
- Any content published or communicated by the Ambassador that is inaccurate, misleading, defamatory, or in breach of any applicable law or third party rights;
- Any claim brought by a Student, third party, or regulatory authority arising from the Ambassador's conduct or content;
- Any breach by the Ambassador of applicable data protection, privacy, or safeguarding law;

- Any unauthorised use of PeerVia's intellectual property, brand, or confidential information.

3.8 Limitation of Liability Cap

To the extent that any liability of PeerVia is found to exist notwithstanding the exclusions set out in this document, and to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, PeerVia's total aggregate liability to any Ambassador in respect of any and all claims arising out of or in connection with this Policy or the Ambassador Programme shall be limited to the total sum of zero euros (€0.00) or zero pounds sterling (£0.00), it being the intention of the parties that PeerVia bears no financial liability whatsoever to any Ambassador under any circumstances.

Nothing in this Policy shall exclude or limit liability for death or personal injury caused by PeerVia's negligence, fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation, or any other liability that cannot be lawfully excluded or limited under applicable Dutch or English law.

Section 4 — Cookies and Tracking Technologies

PeerVia uses cookies and similar tracking technologies on the platform to ensure its proper functioning, analyse usage, and improve the user experience. Cookies are small text files stored on the Ambassador's device when they access the platform.

4.1 Types of Cookies Used

- Strictly Necessary Cookies: Required for the platform to function and cannot be disabled. These include session authentication cookies, security tokens, and load-balancing cookies.
- Analytical Cookies: Used to understand how Ambassadors use the platform, which pages are visited most frequently, and where errors occur. Data is collected in aggregate and anonymised form.
- Preference Cookies: Store Ambassador preferences such as language settings and notification preferences to personalise the platform experience.

4.2 Managing Cookies

Ambassadors may manage or disable non-essential cookies through their browser settings or the cookie preferences panel available on the platform. Disabling strictly necessary cookies may affect the functionality of the platform. By continuing to use the platform, Ambassadors consent to the use of cookies as described in this section.

Section 5 — Content, Intellectual Property, and Licence

This section governs the ownership and use of content created by Ambassadors on or through the PeerVia platform.

5.1 Ownership of Ambassador Content

The Ambassador retains ownership of the intellectual property rights in any original content they create, including written Q&A answers, profile descriptions, and other materials ("Ambassador Content"), subject to the licence granted below.

5.2 Licence Grant to PeerVia

By submitting or publishing any content on the PeerVia platform, the Ambassador hereby grants PeerVia a perpetual, irrevocable, worldwide, royalty-free, non-exclusive licence to use, reproduce, display, distribute, modify, adapt, and sublicense that content for the purposes of operating, promoting, and improving the platform. This licence survives the termination of the Ambassador's participation in the Programme.

5.3 Ambassador Warranties Regarding Content

The Ambassador warrants that all content they submit to PeerVia is original, does not infringe any third party intellectual property rights, is not defamatory, is not in breach of any applicable law, and does not contain any information that the Ambassador does not have the right to disclose. The Ambassador shall indemnify PeerVia against any claim arising from a breach of these warranties.

5.4 PeerVia Intellectual Property

The PeerVia name, logo, brand identity, platform design, software, and all associated intellectual property rights are the exclusive property of PeerVia. No Ambassador is granted any right, licence, or interest in PeerVia's intellectual property other than the limited right to use the PeerVia name solely to identify themselves as a PeerVia Ambassador in an accurate and non-misleading manner.

Section 6 — Safeguarding and Child Protection

PeerVia operates in an environment that involves interactions between adult Ambassadors and young people, some of whom may be under the age of 18. PeerVia takes its safeguarding obligations with the utmost seriousness.

6.1 Ambassador Safeguarding Obligations

Each Ambassador acknowledges that they bear personal and individual responsibility for compliance with all applicable safeguarding laws and obligations in their jurisdiction, including but not limited to the Children Act 1989 and 2004 (UK), the Jeugdwet 2015 (Netherlands), and any applicable institutional safeguarding policies. PeerVia's facilitation of the platform does not transfer, reduce, or discharge the Ambassador's personal obligations in this regard.

6.2 No Liability for Safeguarding Failures by Ambassadors

PeerVia expressly excludes all liability for any safeguarding failure, harm, or incident arising from the conduct or omission of an Ambassador. Where an Ambassador fails to comply with their safeguarding obligations, the legal, professional, and reputational consequences of that failure rest solely and entirely with the Ambassador. PeerVia reserves the right to report any suspected safeguarding concern to the appropriate statutory authority.

Mandatory Reporting Obligation

Any Ambassador who becomes aware of, or has reasonable grounds to suspect, harm or risk of harm to any Student or young person must report this to PeerVia immediately and, where required by law, to the appropriate statutory authority. Failure to report constitutes a serious violation and may give rise to criminal liability for the Ambassador personally.

Section 7 — Amendments, Governing Law, and Disputes

7.1 Amendments to This Policy

PeerVia reserves the right to amend, update, or replace this Privacy Policy and Liability Disclaimer at any time. Ambassadors will be notified of material changes via email or platform notification. Continued participation in the Programme following notification of any change constitutes acceptance of the revised terms. It is the Ambassador's responsibility to review this document periodically.

7.2 Severability

If any provision of this Policy is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, unenforceable, or unlawful, such provision shall be severed from the remainder of this Policy, which shall continue in full force and effect. The parties shall negotiate in good faith to replace any severed provision with a valid provision that achieves the same or similar commercial purpose.

7.3 Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This Policy and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Kingdom of the Netherlands for Ambassadors based in the Netherlands, and the laws of England and Wales for Ambassadors based in the United Kingdom. Each Ambassador irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the relevant governing jurisdiction for the resolution of any dispute arising under this Policy.

7.4 Entire Agreement

This Privacy Policy and Liability Disclaimer, together with the Ambassador Code of Conduct and any other documents expressly incorporated by reference, constitutes the entire agreement between PeerVia and the Ambassador with respect to data processing and liability, and supersedes all prior representations, negotiations, understandings, and agreements relating to the same subject matter.

7.5 Contact and Complaints

For any questions, concerns, or requests relating to this Privacy Policy, Ambassadors may contact PeerVia using the following details:

- Email: info.peervia@gmail.com

Data protection complaints may also be directed to the supervisory authority in the Ambassador's jurisdiction: the Autoriteit Persoonsgegevens (The Netherlands) at autoriteitpersoonsgegevens.nl, or the Information Commissioner's Office (United Kingdom) at ico.org.uk.

Section 8 — Declaration and Acceptance

By signing below, the Ambassador confirms each of the following without reservation:

- I have read and fully understood this Privacy Policy and Liability Disclaimer in its entirety.
- I unconditionally accept all terms, limitations, exclusions, and obligations contained herein.
- I understand and accept that PeerVia bears no liability, financial or otherwise, for anything that happens to me, any Student, or any third party in connection with my participation as a PeerVia Ambassador.
- I understand and accept that I participate in the Ambassador Programme entirely at my own risk and on my own responsibility.
- I understand and accept that any advice I give is given in my personal capacity and PeerVia does not endorse, verify, or take responsibility for it.
- I consent to PeerVia collecting and processing my Personal Data as described in Section 2 of this document.
- I confirm that I am at least 18 years of age and legally competent to enter into this agreement.

By applying to become an ambassador for PeerVia, you acknowledge and agree to all of the rules, information and regulations stated above and are fully aware of the fact that PeerVia does not hold liability or responsibility to any and all problems which may arise while being an ambassador for PeerVia or after. By participating as an ambassador, you agree to all that is stated in this document too.
